John A. Kitzhaber, MD, Governor

Liquor Control Commission

Dear Cecelia,

On behalf of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission, we would like to recognize you and your team, at Jasper's Food Management, Inc, for being active and committed members of the OLCC's "Responsible Vendor Program".

The purpose of the Responsible Vendor Program is to adopt and implement "best practices" to reduce and curb underage drinking and prevent alcohol sales to minors.

The OLCC has been impressed over the years to the level in which Jasper's has embraced the Responsible Vendor Program and implemented it into your pre-employment and on-going employee training programs.

Our agency can see, in the random checks that we have performed on Jasper's Delis, that the clerks are well educated and take their partnership with the OLCC seriously.

It is clear to the OLCC that Jasper's, understands the importance of on-going training and its' importance in responsible alcohol sales and service.

Thank you for your participation and your commitment to the program is commendable you have been a vital part in OLCC's mission to promote responsible dispensing of alcoholic beverages and reducing underage drinking.

Congratulations on your new position at Blackhawk Restaurant Group, LLC they are getting great employee and we are loosing a fantastic industry partner.

Sincerely,

Mark Jaehning
